Whenever off-the-shelf plastic or coated designs aren't the customer's preferred choice, Medi-Ray™ can provide exterior plastic encasements customized to the customer's exact dimensions and colors.

- Medi-Ray™'s plastic encased lead containers can have interlocking plastic lids and bases, with corporate logos and product identification symbols as part of the plastic encasement.

- Our emphasis is always placed on transport and handling safety, regardless of the packaging design.

Contact Medi-Ray™
